

SUMMER ROCK BAND CAMP

is an intensive, month-long music program held at the Ted Herbert Music School in which young musicians, ages 10 to 18, will have the opportunity to learn the skills of playing in a band situation, interacting with and supporting other players while working together towards a common goal; which is to perform 4 to 6 rock songs at a public band showcase in one month's time!

The Program Curriculum:

There are 2 camps, one held in July and one in August. July participants will be welcome to enroll again for August.

There are 2 classes per week, each 2 hours (a total of eight 2 hour classes).

Classes are Mondays and Wednesdays or Tuesdays and Thursdays.

Morning class times: 9:00am – 11:00am

Afternoon class times: 12:00pm – 2:00pm

 Available class days and times are solely dependent on the amount of interest and enrollment.*

4 to 6 rock songs of various styles will be learned and rehearsed, as well as other group music exercises.

The program will conclude with each band performing their songs at a public showcase held at a local music establishment.

The Program Director:

George Westbay

Named best music teacher by New Hampshire Magazine for 2007, George, a music instructor at the Ted Herbert Music School for 15 years, fronts his own band and is the guitarist for the Mark Herbert Little Big Band. He has been teaching at least 50 private students a week and has directed many student bands for school recitals.

George is a graduate of Berklee College of Music with a BM in music composition.

Enrollment Fee:

The cost for the month-long, eight 2-hour classes plus concluding showcase performance is only $ 100.00 per participant.

Students already taking private lessons at the Ted Herbert Music School will receive a 25% discount!

Program Requirements:

You must be between the ages of 10 and 18 to apply.

You will need your parent's/guardian's consent.

You must be playing your instrument and/or taking private lessons at least 1 year.

Fee paid in full by July 7th for the July camp and by July 31st for the August camp. The $25 registration fee for applicants not currently enrolled in private lessons at the Ted Herbert Music School will be waived for this summer program.
